Dear friends and colleagues!

On behalf of the City of Oslo, it is an honour to welcome colleagues and friends to the 12th ECAD conference.

The ECAD conferences give us the opportunity to come together and discuss means and methods to defeat the drug industry and to help those who suffer from its consequences. These issues have top priority in Oslo and are the main focus of this conference.

Despite the grave issues on the agenda, I hope you will find the time to get to know Oslo better, and that when you leave, you will have newfound energy to continue the ever important fight against drugs.

Welcome to Oslo!

Per Ditlev-Simonsen, Mayor
